The House Select Committee on Assassinations released several photographs and composite drawings yesterday "in the hope that citizen recognition of them might shed additional light on the assassinations of President John F. Kennedy and Dr. Martin Luther King Jr."

• A photo the committee said was taken in Dealey Plaza, Dallas, on Nov. 22, 1963, moments after Kennedy was shot. The blurred photo shows a dark-haired man who appears to be seated on a curb.

• "Photos of two men who may have been in Mexico City in the fall of 1963 when Lee Harvey Oswald, the man the Warren Commission determined shot President Kennedy, was there." These photos also are blurred.

• A drawing of a man the committee said reportedly represented himself as a member of the U.S. intelligence community in the 1960s and who on occasion used the name "Maurice Bishop."

• A sketch of a man, "with the first name 'Ralph' who allegedly was in Atlanta in 1967 or early 1968."

The committee gave no further details of the photos and drawings.

It asked that anyone having information about the men to contact the committee by mail, not by telephone.
